Farm Business Consultants, Inc. Announces Expansion with New US Office to Support Growth

January 4, 2016, Austin, TX. – Farm Business Consultants, Inc. (FBC), North America’s largest and most experienced rural income tax consulting firm, today announces the opening of a new office to accommodate the rapid growth and future expansion plans in the United States. The new office located at 8601 Ranch Road 2222 in Austin, Texas will serve as FBC’s US headquarters and will provide capacity for increased Member support, technology, sales, marketing and leadership functions across the company’s operations in America.

“FBC’s new office will allow us to increase our capabilities in key areas that align with our current and future growth plans. The new office will allow us to expand our core teams to support the growth we are experiencing while giving us dedicated facilities to host Member briefings and other activities,” said Rufe Vanderpool, US Vice President of Operations. “Our team is excited about the phenomenal growth we are experiencing and this move represents a commitment to continue building on the success our team in Canada has accomplished.”

About FBC

FBC helps farmers and ranchers keep more of the money they earn each year by paying less in taxes. By providing year-round tax planning, consulting, preparation and audit assistance on a membership basis, FBC saved its Members more than $27 million last year. Trusted for more than 60 years, and with more than 20,000 Members in Canada, FBC makes life less taxing.
