GREGORY R. VARTANYAN

Gregory R. Vartanyan (Greg) joined First National Bank of Colorado in 2001 and currently serves as president of their corporate banking division. Prior to that, he was a senior vice president with Bank One, in charge of its business banking operations in Colorado.

Greg received an undergraduate degree from the State University of New York in 1974, and a MBA from the University of Colorado at Denver in 1984. He also earned a degree from the Stonier Graduate School of Banking in 1987.

During his 21 years with Bank One, and its predecessor, Affiliated Bankshares, Greg held various leadership positions, including chairman, president and CEO of Affiliated First National Bank of Westminster. He has been active in a number of organizations during his career including board positions with Denver Civic Ventures, Goodwill Industries, Boy Scouts, Rotary, Business Capital of Colorado, Denver Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, Colorado Lending Source, Colorado Business Committee for the Arts, and the Denver Metro Chamber Foundation. He is a Leadership Denver alumnus (1995), and is involved in councils at the Denver Chamber and Downtown Denver Partnership.

Greg and his wife, Terry, live in Bonnie Brae. They enjoy many outdoor activities, especially cycling and mountain climbing.
